

KAREN SANDS >

SAMPLING OF GENERAL INTERVIEW QUESTIONS

1. What is a GEROFUTURISM?
2. What led me to be become a LEADING GEROFUTURIST?
3. Tell us about yourself.
4. What makes you who you are?
5. Tell us about what you do.
6. How did you get involved with it?
7. Who do I serve? Who are my CLIENTS? How do my clients work with me?
8. How does combining coaching with being a GeroFuturist make me unique?
9. When you started, what did you hope to accomplish?
10. What was your vision of society that brought you to the work you do?
11. Has your vision changed as you have participated in the remaking of the world?
12. What challenges do you perceive in achieving your vision?

KAREN SANDS >

13. What do you think we should remember as we remake the world through the work we do?

14. Tell us about something you've witnessed doing your work that really had an impact on you ... what have you experienced working with your customers, families or peers that has kept you motivated to make a difference?

15. Sometimes small business owners struggle ... much like I'm sure you have at one point or another ... to keep business coming in, so they can keep using their gifts to help others. What would you tell those that are there right now and wondering if it is worth it?

16. What have you done for yourself to increase your knowledge, sharpen your focus, or help you run a better business (outreach, service, etc.)?

17. What things have you leveraged to help you have a bigger impact, such as coaching, training, mentoring, etc.

18. What exciting things is on the horizon for you or your company?

19. What pointers would you give young people of the 9/11 generation as they work in public service assignments or enter the world of work?